would not have to be paid?

SENATOR LAMB: I think it is just to the banks. I don't believe it is private individuals.

SENATOR BEUTLER: But you are striking the exemption from the statute, are you not? I'm just a little bit worried about whether it is as narrow as you might have intended.

SENATOR LAMB: Yes, they are telling me this language was added to the statutes last year. I guess I...I'm sorry I can't fully answer your questions but that is the intent of it.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Senator DeCamp, can we just pass over this bill until there has been an opportunity to maybe think about this a little bit?

SENATOR DECAMP: The problem is if we pass over it, I want to make sure we do not lose the bill this year. The Bar Association needs it, the Home Builders and realtors that are doing work in condominiums need to straighten out the law from before. I don't want to jeopardize a chance to do that.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Mr. Clerk, if this bill is taken up tomorrow, does that jeopardize anything?

SENATOR DECAMP: That's Senator Nichol.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Senator Nichol.

SENATOR DECAMP: The amendment is okay, don't worry. Trust me, it's okay.

SPEAKER NICHOL: We've already set out the calendar for tomorrow and I don't have it in front of me at the moment, Senator Chris Beutler. Do you have it there? It, of course, is not on tomorrow. We have Final Reading in the morning. We could possibly put it on tomorrow if you don't amend it. If you do amend it, of course, it can't be on tomorrow but it could be on before the end of the session.
